THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky, Where the "Old Home" got its name, Where the fields are overflowing With the yellow ripening grain.

Here tobacco plants are growing,
In the fields not sown with corn, Tobacco plants—big as cactus—Just as sure as you are born.

Yes, they're large as good-sized cactus, Larger in our home-like view, But it's of a fine a grade as Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest, Money in bank from year to year,
All the green calamity howlers, Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways, Built high and dry from rains and floods.
Here the "good roads delegation," Swear the roads are sutt'nly good.

But of pikes and highways finest, There's a "road" that suits my taste; Tis the line of Solid Comfort, And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis, Operates this road of class, Across the famous old "Green River"
On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of?
Listen then to my advice,
For you'll need it in your business,
On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis—Hurry, beat them under the wire,
"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit"—
'Tis a good one to acquire.

—[Jack "Henderson" Gallagher]

BATTLE AT KIN CHOU.

The Japanese Loss Estimated at 3,500 Killed.

Stronghold Was Captured and There Is Little Now to Hinder Japanese Advance on Port Arthur, Which Has Begun.

Tokio, May 30.—The details of the fighting at Kin Chou emphasize the heroic tenacity of the Japanese in their conduct at Nanshan. Nine successive times the Japanese charged the fortified heights in the face of a storm of death dealing missiles and in their last effort they carried the forts and trenches only after a bayonet to bayonet conflict with the Russians, who made desperate despairing struggle to beat back the oncoming hordes.

The final assault of the Japanese in which they at last succeeded in taking possession was marked by the most desperate hand to hand encounter that has thus far characterized the war.
The Japanese left, throughout the entire action until night, was exposed to an enfilading fire from the Russian infantry, a gunboat on Tallywan bay and four 9-centimetre guns posted at Tafengchen. At a critical moment the ammunition of the artillery ran low and it was decided to cast the remaining ammunition into one final desperate assault.

Fortunately however at the moment this decision was reached the Japanese squadron in Kin Chou bay, which had ceased bombarding when the infantry had first moved forward, suddenly resumed the shelling of Nanshan. Then it was that the issues of the day were determined at a moment when the outcome was fluttering between success and defeat for Japan—at that moment was an almost certain repulse converted into victory so successful that the forces of the czar were swept into confusion and disorderly retreat. With every Japanese gun centering its fire upon the Nanshan forts and trenches, the Japanese infantry sprang over the bodies of the dead comrades who had sacrificed their lives in the previous fruitless charges. The entire line rushed forward toward the Russian left, where the fire of the Japanese squadron had proved most deadly and which was the first to weaken under the death dealing bombardment. And it was there that the first breach was made in the human stone wall that all day had been an invincible barrier to the impetuous assault of the brown men.

It was the fourth division of the Osaka men that stormed the Russian left. It had once been said that Osaka men were not brave. It will never be said again.

The first division of Tokio, which had the center and the third division of Nagoya occupying the left and which had been exposed all day to the Russian fire against the front flank, now followed the example of the Osaka men and rushed forward and the battle became transformed from an artillery duel into one of personal conflict, with the bayonet as the instrument of warfare. On every parapet the restless, death-defying Japanese surged forward in increasing numbers and hustling the Russians from their intrenchments, swept over the hill.

At 7:30 o'clock as the sun was sinking beneath the horizon the flag of the land of the Rising Sun floated above the blood sodden Nanshan hill, while the shouts of "Banzai" swelled from hill to hill and re-echoed from squadron to fort.

The Japanese paid for their victory in 3,500 killed and wounded. To the Russians humiliation of defeat was intensified by the loss of 68 cannon and 10 machine guns while lying dead in the fort and trenches were 500 men, the victims of the accuracy of Japanese long distance marksmanship and of close range fighting.

Work of Wire Tappers.

Hot Springs, Ark., May 27.—As a result of the work of wire tappers Wednesday the Illinois, one of the largest poolrooms in Hot Springs, has suspended operations and the management assigns as a reason that it is unwilling to take chances under the present method of gathering and disseminating racing news. The total amount lost by the rooms is $15,000.

Salaries of All Cut.

New York, May 28.—A remarkable departure in cutting wages has been made by the head of an electrical equipment concern of New Jersey, which notified its 1,200 employees that all wages in the company had been cut ten per cent. The cut begins with the president and extends without exception to the lowest priced employee.

The Illinois Ready For Service.

Washington, May 28.—The navy department has been informed of the completion of the repairs to the battleship Illinois and of her readiness for immediate sea service. The Illinois was badly damaged in a recent collision.

Solemn Religious and Military Service.

Tokio, May 30.—A solemn religious and military service in honor of 15 officers, residents of Tokio who were lost at the time of the disasters to the battleship Hatahuse and the protected cruiser Yoshino, were held here Sunday.

Naval Guns at Nanshan.

Che Foo, May 30.—Chinese from Dahly say that the Russians had 26 naval guns at Nanshan and also that many guns from the Port Arthur fleet had been placed in the land batteries.

THE GILLESPIE JURY.

After 50-Hour Session It Disagreed and Was Discharged.

Rising Sun, Ind., May 30.—The jury of 12 good men and true, empaneled to try James Gillespie, Belle Seward and Carrie and Myron Barbour for the murder of James Gillespie's twin sister Elizabeth, has disagreed. At 10:30 o'clock Sunday, after it had been out for 50 hours, the jury was summoned to the courtroom and interrogated by Judge Downey as to whether or not it had agreed upon its verdict.

Ira Powell, the foreman, replied that it had not.

"Is there any possibility that you can agree upon a verdict?" asked the court.

"None whatever," replied Powell.

"Does this express the opinion of all of you?" inquired Judge Downey, addressing the jurors.

Each of the men nodded in the affirmative.

"Gentlemen," said the court, "it is unfortunate that our three weeks of hard work should result in a mistrial.
I trust, however, that each of you has arrived at his decision through a serious consideration of the evidence as brought out at the trial and not because of ulterior reasons.

"I thank you for your conscientiousness with which you have performed your duty.

"Gentlemen, you are discharged."

The vote of the jurors stood five for conviction and seven for acquittal continuously through their long session.
Eight ballots were taken and no votes were changed.

The vote applied to all the defendants, and no attempt to frame a compromise verdict on one or two of the accused was possible.

MCDONALD ACQUITTED.

Jury Says He Is Not Guilty of the Murder of Miss Schafer.

Bedford, Ind., May 28.—The jury Friday returned a verdict acquitting James McDonald, who was on trial for the murder of Miss Sarah Schafer.

So quietly was the arrangement to receive the verdict that McDonald's wife was not in the courtroom. After the verdict was announced there were cries of "Good, Jim," and applause.
McDonald's attorneys refused to allow him to make a statement. The verdict was reached on the seventh ballot.
The first stood nine for acquittal and three for conviction. McDonald was formally discharged by the court and left the courtroom. There was no demonstration.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 28.—The Star Friday night offers a reward of $1,000 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Miss Sarah Schafer, the Bedford school teacher.

TERRIBLE FLOODS.

Thousands of Head of Stock Were Drowned in Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., May 28.—Division Superintendent Bignell, of the Burlington, who returned Friday from the flooded districts in Greeley and Nance counties, gave details of what is regarded as the worst flood ever known in that territory. Three persons have lost their lives—John Pollard and Edward Bendorer were drowned and William Ray killed by lightning. Thousands of head of stock were drowned.
One stockman lost 100 fat cattle and 300 hogs. Trains were tied up from washed out tracks and some of the smaller towns have been without mail since Tuesday.

SWIMMING CONTEST.

Guy M. Daily Established New World's Record For 97 Yards.

Pittsburg, May 28.—In the Western Pennsylvania swimming championship held at the Carnegie Athletic club, Braddock, Friday night, Guy M.
Daily, of Pittsburg, established a new world's record for 97 yards, covering the distance in 55 seconds with three turns. Daily also won the quarter mile in 6:38 and the 220 yards championship in 3:06. The event was sanctioned by the A. A. U.

Presbyterians Vote For Union.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 28.—The Presbyterian general assembly voted in favor of union with the Cumberland church, the conference of which has voted favorably at Dallas. The question now goes to the Presbyteries, two-thirds of which must vote in favor of the proposition before it becomes a law.

Gans Defeated Cook.

Baltimore, May 28.—Joe Gans, the lightweight champion, defeated Jewey Cook, reputed to be the lightweight champion of England and the welterweight champion of South Africa, Friday night, before the Eureka Athletic club.

Appointed Consuls.

Panama, May 28.—Alejandro Guardia has been appointed consul at San Francisco and Ernesto Palacio consul to Corinto, Nicaragua. A law establishing a national real estate and mortgage bank has been passed. The Praise the Japanese Soldiers.

London, May 30.—The London dailies exhaust the vocabulary of admiration for the Japanese. The achievement at Kin Chou they regard as proving the absolute military equality of the Japanese with the best European armies.

Mrs. Garfield Seriously Ill.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 30.—During the past two months the health of Mrs.
James A. Garfield, widow of the martyred Ohio president, has been "of serious import to her family," who have been occupying a home in Pasadena.

Doubtful Compliment.

Poulney Bigelow, who has accepted the chair of foreign relations at Boston university, had completed an address before the Twentieth Century club of Chicago. A young man congratulated Mr.
Bigelow rather awkwardly on this address, and the learned traveler replied:

"That is a doubtful compliment. It reminds me of a remark that a friend of the groom's made at a New Hampshire wedding.

"This friend, an observant chap, watched the groom closely during the ceremony, and at the end bore down on the happy man, shook him warmly by the hand, and said:

"Bill, ye done good. I had an idee ye would be skittish while ye wuz bein' tied up, but, begosh, ye looked as bold as a sheep."—Washington Post.

A Happy Mother.

Maple Hill, Ia., May 30.—A very remarkable case occurred here recently. The people here have never seen anything like it and it may interest many others.

From his infancy, Verne, the little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Barfoot, of this place, has been sickly. His mother consulted a doctor, but he did not begin to improve till some one suggested that she try a remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills. From unmistakable symptoms she had always believed that his kidneys were the first cause of all the trouble, so she bought a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began giving little Verne two pills a day.

In two or three days she noticed an improvement and she kept on till he had used about two boxes when to her great joy, he was all right. Everybody remarks how much better Verne looks and Mrs.
Barfoot always explains: "Dodd's Kidney Pills saved his life."

Professional Ride.

"Why, your thing machine won't even leave the ground!" said the man who had been induced to observe the experiment.

"Well," answered the inventor, after some reflection, "my machine may not be as much of a traveler as some of the others, but it's a heap safer."—Washington Star.
